The Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

BOSTON, November 24. 1740.

The SPEECH of His Excellency JONATHAN BELCHER, Eſq; to the Great and General Court or Aſſembly of His Majeſty's Province of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay in New-England.

Gentlemen of the Council, & of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

SINCE the laſt Sitting of this Court, I have received from their Excellencies, the Lords Juſtices of Great-Britain, his Majeſty's Royal Pleaſure, in two additional Inſtructions.

One reſpecting the future Emiſſions of Bills of Credit in this Province.

The other for carrying into Execution His Majeſty's Determination in Council, on the Boundaries betwixt this Province and that of New-Hampſhire.

And I have alſo received from the Right Honourable the Lords of Trade and Plantations, the Order of their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, for making out a Commiſſion for ſettling the Boundaries between this Province and the Colony of Rhode-Iſland; theſe Things Mr. Secretary will lay before you, and in that, reſpecting the Boundaries between this Province and New Hampſhire, you will ſee the King's great Regard to the Peace and Quiet of his good Subjects of both Provinces, by the ſtrict Command he has given, that that Matter ſhould be executed in the moſt effectual and expeditious Manner; you will therefore make the proper Proviſion for defraying the Charge that may attend the Execution thereof, which being done, nothing ſhall be wanting on my part, to have that Affair done with the beſt Diſpatch.

I have directed a Repair to the ſeveral Forts on the Frontiers, and they will ſoon be effected, in ſuch a Manner as the ſtrait Proviſion you made for that Service may allow.

The conſtant Accounts we have of the Armament making in Europe, the Conſequences whereof may be a War, more fatal to the Northern Plantations, and to this Province in particular, than that already begun, ſhould alarm us to the providing for our Defence and Safety; the mention whereof naturally leads me to urge upon you again the Repairs, and the neceſſary additional Works, to be done at Caſtle William, the principal Fortreſs of the Province.

And that early Care be alſo taken, for procuring a good Stock of Powder, ſmall Arms, and other Warlike Stores, thereby to prevent too great a Surprize, in Caſe there ſhould be Occaſion to make uſe of them.

And in this Time of War and Danger, for the better Defence of our Sea Coaſts, I think, you ought, in a faithful Diſcharge of your Duty to your Country, to be early in making a humble Supplication to His Majeſty for ſome Ships of War, to protect our Navigation and Commerce; in which Affair, I ſhall be ready to give all the Aſſiſtance in my Power.

The Law for reſtraint on the private Traders with the Indians being near expiring, and the great Abuſes committed by ſuch Traders on them, I think loudly requires the preparing of a Bill to be paſs'd in a Law, for reſerving the Trade with the Indians intirely to the Government, by whom it may be manag'd, in Conformity to the Treaties with thoſe People; and by this Means, intoxicating the Indians with ſtrong Drinks (too frequent a Practice with theſe private Traders) may be avoided, as well as the great Injuſtice done them, at ſuch Times: And another happy Fruit of ſuch a Conduct in the Government, we might reaſonably hope, would be the lengthning out the Peace we now enjoy with thoſe People; and to divide the Truck Trade, into ſome other of the Garriſons, might be pleaſing to the Indians, and no diſadvantage to the Province.

The Time for bringing in the Deficiencies on the Loans, being long ſince elaps'd, you will do well to make a repeated Inquiry into that Matter, and alſo into what may be ſtill remaining unpaid, by the late Farmers of the Exciſe, that ſo the Orders of the Legiſlature in theſe Articles may be punctually comply'd with.

You are ſenſible, Gentlemen, that there have been for ſome Time paſt, two Schemes or Projections going forward, for the Emitting, or Circulating a great quantity of private Notes of Hand, to paſs in Lieu of Money; and I am told theſe Notes are now getting out among the People. Such Proceedings in any Community, without the Leave and Countenance of the Government, have been always judged of dangerous Conſequence to a Common Wealth; for which Reaſon the laſt Aſſembly of the Province, came into a Reſolution of making Inquiry into theſe Things, and which I wiſh had been duly purſued by you; but as it was not, the Governor and Council (in the Receſs of the General Court) took theſe Matters into their Conſideration, in order to diſcountenance (as far as in them lay) any further Proceedings about them: and they brought the Undertakers of what is commonly call'd the Silver Scheme, to make an eſſential Amendment upon it, whereby every Poſſeſſor of theſe Notes, is intitled, from the Undertakers, to Silver or Gold on Demand, at the Rates expreſs'd in the Face of thoſe Bills, or otherwiſe that the ſaid Company have obliged themſelves to pay to the Poſſeſſors any difference that may happen in the Price of Silver or Gold, from the Price ſtated in thoſe Notes, as the Poſſeſſors may pleaſe to demand it of them; and this Amendment is made an unalterable Article of that Scheme: And for the better Security of it, an authentick Inſtrument is executed by the Directors of the ſaid Company, and lodged in the Secretary's Office; and this prevents any Fraud or Diſcount on thoſe Notes, all diſtant Periods of coming at Silver or Gold for them, being out of the Queſtion.

But as for the Scheme for forming what is commonly called the Land Bank, it appeared to the Governor and Council to be big with ſo many Miſchiefs to this People, that they thought it their indiſpenſible Duty, to bear publick Teſtimony againſt it (as they have done) and to ſave unwary People from Injuries they might otherwiſe ſuffer, by taking Notes for Money, which have no honeſt or ſolid Foundation, and in the End may prove ruinous to ſuch Poſſeſſors as may have any Bulk of thoſe Paper Notes. I would therefore earneſtly recommend to you, the preparing of a Bill, to be paſs'd into a Law, to ſtop any further Proceedings of thoſe Projectors. You have, no doubt, had an Account of the Applications now making to His Majeſty, and to the Parliament of Great-Britain, for ſuppreſſing this dangerous Affair.

This Legiſlature have often honoured themſelves in a kind and generous Remembrance of ſuch Families, and of the Poſterities of ſuch, as have been Sufferers either in their Perſons or Eſtates, for or by the Government, of which the publick Records will give you many Inſtances; I ſhould therefore be glad, there might be a Committee appointed by this Court, to Inquire into the Sufferings of the People called Quakers, in the early Days of this Country; as alſo, into the Deſcendants of ſuch Families, as were in a manner ruined, in the miſtaken Management of the terrible Affair called Witchcraft: I really think there is ſomething incumbent on this Government to be done, for retrieving the Eſtates and Reputation of the Poſterities of thoſe unhappy Families, that ſo ſuffered; and the doing it (tho' ſo long afterwards) would doubtleſs be acceptable to Almighty GOD, and would reflect Honour upon the preſent Legiſlature.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

The Treaſurer will lay before you the State of the publick Revenues, by which you will form a Judgment, what Supply may be neceſſary to be made, at this Seſſion, for Payment of the publick Debts, and in further Support of His Majeſty's Government.

As it is, Gentlemen, peculiarly your Province, to make Grants for any Service done for the Government, I think it proper to acquaint you, that I have been lately honoured with a Letter from the Rt. Hon. HORATIO WALPOLE, Eſq; His Majeſty's Auditor General, of all His Revenues in America, and who has ſerved this Province in that Office, for many Years paſt, without receiving any Conſideration from the Government. But that you may be the better informed in this Matter, I ſhall give you his own Words; "There was an Allowance formerly made in New England, to "Mr. Blaithwaite as Auditor; and tho' nothing can be more "juſt, than that the Officers under a Government ſhould receive "ſome Recompence, yet I have received none from New-Eng-"land, during the whole Time I have had the auditing of their "Accompts" I think what this honourable Perſon expects from you, is reaſonable to be done, and therefore recommend to you the Conſideration of a proper Reward for his paſt Services, and to make him ſuch Grants for the future as may be juſt and equitable; and I the more earneſtly urge upon you, the treating this Gentleman in the moſt handſome and honourable Manner, as a Thing that may greatly tend to the future Intereſt and Advantage of this Province.

Gentlemen of the Council, and of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

As this is a leiſure Seaſon, I hope you will patiently and chearfully devote yourſelves, to the doing of every Thing that may come before you, for eſtabliſhing the Welfare and Proſperity of the Province; and that you will allow my beſt Endeavours to be join'd with yours in ſo happy a Work.

J. BELCHER.

Boſton, Novemb. 22. 1740.

Vienna, Sept. 20. It's aſſured, that a Marriage is concluded on between the Archdutcheſs Mary Ann, ſecond Daughter to the Emperor, and Prince Charles of Lorrain, and will be Declar'd at Court in eight or ten Days. A Courier has been ſent from hence to Paris, with diſpatches relating to the Difficulties rais'd by the Turkiſh Ambaſſador, who amongſt other Things pretended that when Prince d' Adverſperg and Count Wurmbrand ſhould go to conduct him to an Audience of the Emperor, he ſhould not be obliged to go to receive them, nor to reconduct them upon his Return: That the Principal Perſons of his Retinue ſhould march intermixed with the Officers of the Emperor's Houſhold: That the Janiſſaries and the Spahis, which compos'd his Guard, ſhould paſs by the Palace of the Favourita without paying it Military Reſpects: That when he enter'd into the Hall of Audience, he ſhould not be oblig'd to take off his Slippers: That inſtead of the Cuſtom heretofore practis'd, of his Imperial Majeſty's preſenting to the Turkiſh Ambaſſadors his Hand cover'd with his Mantle, this Miniſter would have the Honour as the Chriſtian Ambaſſadors have, to kiſs the bare Hand of the Emperor: And that he would not have his ſecond Audience of Count Harrach, Preſident of the Council of War, but the great Duke of Tuſcany, who being Captain General of the Armies of the Emperor, ſeem'd to him to be neareſt in Dignity to the Grand Vizier. It's ſaid, that the Empeſs having ſent him a Phial of Eſſence of Gold, as a Remedy for his Indiſpoſition, with Information that there were three Doſes of it; the Ambaſſador without giving any Attention thereto, took it all at once, ſaying, that what come from ſo great a Princeſs could not do him any Hurt; he however found himſelf gteatly diſorder'd for two days after. This Miniſter, after having been told, that if he perſiſted in the above Difficulties, the Emperor would diſpatch a Courier to Conſtantinople to complain of him to the Porte, at laſt ſign'd a Convention in reſpect of the Ceremonial of his publick Entry, and firſt Audience of the Emperor, ſo that it's believ'd nothing will hinder his Entry from being made the 25th Inſtant. Advice has been received, that Count d'Uhlfelt is at laſt arriv'd at Adrianople, where at preſent he remains, becauſe of the Tumults in Conſtantinople.

London, September 20. Yeſterday was held at Guildhall a Court of Huſtings for the Election of a Lord Mayor for the Year enſuing, when Sir Robert Godſchal & George Heathcote, Eſqs; were return'd to the Court of Aldermen by the Common Hall, who declar'd the latter; but he in a Speech declin'd accepting of it for the enſuing Year, when the Thanks of the Common Hall were unanimouſly given him for ſo doing, and then the Court adjourn'd, ſine Die.

An Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated Octo. 7.

"Tho' the States General perſuade themſelves that they ſhall not be oblig'd to take Part in the the preſent War between Great Britain and Spain, they have taken into Conſideration, whether it would not be neceſſary to equip a ſtill greater Number of Men of War in the next Spring than thoſe which are already agreed to be fitted out. Some of their Members have confer'd upon this Subject with the Deputies of the Admiralties, who were ſent for hither for that Purpoſe; and tho' it be foreſeen that the Province who ſo ſtrongly oppos'd the preſent Naval Armament, will raiſe very great Difficulties before they conſent to a more conſiderable one, the Members of the Government who are at the Helm of Affairs, have not ſcrupled to inſinuate to the Deputies of the Admiralties, that it would be expedient for them to make the neceſſary Preparations, without Noiſe or Buſtle, for putting in caſe of Need, and upon the firſt Order, twelve or fifteen Men of War at Sea. Such was the Reſult of the Conferences that the Deputies of the Admiralties who are return'd to their reſpective Stations, had with the Miniſters of State.

As his Daniſh Majeſty continues to give Interruption and Diſturbance to the Dutch Navigation to Greenland, and as the States General are more than ever diſſatisfied with the Manner in which the Court of Copenhagen explains itſelf on this Occaſion, it's reported, that the ſix Men of War which ſhall be firſt put into Commiſſion, will be immediately order'd to protect the Ships deſtin'd for Whale-Fiſhing. It's fear'd that this Miſunderſtanding with his Daniſh Majeſty will have bad Conſequences; and the more ſo as that Prince threatens to hinder all Dutch Ships paſſing the Sound. People in this Country wiſh that his Britannick Majeſty would interpoſe in this Difference, and bring it by his Mediation to a happy Accommodation; but the Members of the Government are unwilling to aſk this Mediation, for fear that his Britannick Majeſty who would be glad to have the Re-publick take a Part in his Favour againſt Spain, ſhould ſet too high a Price upon it."

Sept. 30. George Heathcote, Eſq; Alderman, was returned (by the Court of Aldermen) Lord Mayor of the City of London for the enſuing Year; ſo that Sir George Champion was again ſet aſide.
